From the Director of Agriculture, Lr. No. W. 4 209/49, dated 11-6-49.

ORDER:

The Government have examined the proposals of the Director of Agriculture for increasing the rates of maximum wages of the regular coolies employed in the Agricultural Farms other than those employed in Hill Stations and in the Central Agricultural College, Farm and Malt Factory, Coimbatore. In G.O. No. 1616 Food and Agriculture dated 14th December, 1949 the Government ordered that there was no justification for increasing the wages of the coolies employed in the Central Agricultural College Farm, Coimbatore. They do not also see for an enhancement of the existing rates of wages of the coolies employed in other Farms (other than those in the Hill Stations) and in the Malt Factory, Coimbatore.

To the Director of Agriculture.
